haoshi, let good things happen.

haoshi is a home and living décor design company established in 2009, a charming brand that links art to living.

We believe that life is full of happiness and interesting things. The name haoshi derived from the oral Taiwanese pronunciation '好事', which means 'good things happen', to create beautiful things in ordinary daily living.

At haoshi, everything we make draws from three primary sources of inspiration: art, the living, and emotion. We were inspired by our surroundings, and each design is born out of our love and passion and has an intrinsic element of culture.
